20 Minute Rule (Real World)

1. Try different things
2. Check the Work Documentation or Material
3. Check Official Documentation
4. Search Online
5. Ask your co-workers
6. Ask your Boss

Follow these steps every time you come across a issue that lasts longer than 20 min. Using these same steps in the real world means you won't go to your boss as often, and that's a good thing
